CHARNELL C. WILLIAMS RECIPIENT OF THE 2014 ANNUAL REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL BANKING LAW & PRACTICE DEDICATION

CHARLOTTE, NC, USA (13 March 2014) – The Institute of International Banking Law & Practice (IIBLP) announced that the 2014 volume of its ANNUAL REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL BANKING LAW & PRACTICE is dedicated to Charnell C. Williams of Citi.

At the 2014 Annual Survey of Letter of Credit Law & Practice conference, IIBLP formally honoured Williams by presenting her with a copy of the 2014 ANNUAL REVIEW book.

“A leader at Citi, in BAFT-IFSA, in the IIBLP, at the ICC Banking Commission, and in her community of Tampa, Charnell brings a special blend of lively energy and dedication to the field of international banking operations that has touched all with whom she deals”, said IIBLP Director Professor James E. Byrne. “It is with great pleasure that the IIBLP honours her for her many contributions to the field.”

Williams

Williams is a Director in Citi’s Treasury and Trade Solutions where she is the Global Trade Services Product Manager responsible for covering all trade products and services, risk and controls, and global technical training. With 37 years of experience in the field, including 18 years at Citi, she is recognized as an industry expert in the Global Trade Services community. In the international banking arena, Charnell is involved with the Bankers Association for Finance and Trade and International Financial Services Association. She has served in various capacities for the US national committee of the ICC and participated as one of the founding members of CDCS. Charnell is a Charter Member of the IIBLP’s Americas Advisory Council. She is also one of the original founders of Citi’s Tampa Women’s Council.

Each year, IIBLP dedicates its ANNUAL REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL BANKING LAW & PRACTICE to a distinguished professional to honour their outstanding contributions to the field of letter of credit law and practice. Past honourees have included Alan BLOODGOOD (USA); Reinhard LÄNGERICH (Denmark); M.P. TSIM (Hong Kong); Professor Dr. Boris KOZOLCHYK (USA); Professor E. Peter ELLINGER (Singapore); Vincent M. MAULELLA (USA); James G. BARNES (USA); Lakshmanan SANKARAN (UAE); Karl MAYRL (Austria); SOH Chee Seng (Singapore); and Vincent O’BRIEN (Ireland).

The Institute of International Banking Law & Practice is a not-for-profit educational and research organization dedicated to achieving a better understanding of banking law and practice and their relationship to each other. For more information, contact: Christopher Byrnes at csbyrnes@iiblp.org
